XVI. WASTE MINIMIZATION (narrative description)

A program was developed and implemented in 1985 to reduce the quantity of waste containing ethylene dichloride (EDC). This was accomplished by recycling process samples back to the process. Previously they had been accumulated and shipped to a hazardous waste facility. The 1985 disposal quantity was 38% less than the 1984 disposal quantity and 98% less than the 1983 disposal quantity. These reductions resulted from fewer off-specification batches due to tighter operating control as well as the recycling mentioned above.

A program was developed in 1985 and is being implemented in 1986 to reduce the disposal quantity of a portion of the other hazardous waste, which consists of various pesticides. This is being accomplished by returning the unused portion of samples to the supplier. The 1985 disposal quantity was higher than the 1984 disposal quantity but less than the 1983 disposal quantity. The large portion of this waste is contaminated water. The total volume of this waste water in 1985 was 28% less than the 1984 and 1983 disposal quantities. The toxic contaminant of this fluctuates from 1 to 2.5% and can't be reduced without refusing business as it is the result of laboratory testing of our non-toxic material with a customer's toxic material.

SUBJECT: Corrections To Registration Number 31107

Please change Contact Person from "Jay Williams" to "Lew Briggs". In Section I, Waste Number 004, change the EPA Hazardous Waste No. from "U079" to "U077". This is not a change in our waste stream. The component is ethylene dichloride which has a chemical name of 1,2-dichloroethane. The chemical name for U079 is 1,2-dichloroethylene.

Sincerely,

PETROCHEMICALS/DESOTO, INC.

Please note that these two wastes appeared on registration #31528, a TOWR registration number previously assigned to this facility. In a letter dated April 25, 1983, Mr. Charles D. Gill, P.E., of the Texas Department of Water Resources, requested that we cancel this registration because we had two registration numbers (#31107 and #31328). We should have had these two wastes transferred at that time, but failed to do so. Letters concerning this matter have been enclosed for your information.

6. Under "On-site Waste Management Facilities", please add the following:
  - A. A 5,000 gallon, temporary storage tank for waste number 001 (code 909850).
  - B. A concrete sump to collect waste number 001 (code 909850), prior to pumping into the above mentioned tank. This sump is emptied daily.
  - C. A concrete storage pad for the temporary storage of 55 gallon drums of waste number 004 (code 116980).

If I can be of further service in these matters, please feel free to contact me at (817) 625-2111.

Sincerely,
